

GUYS WEEKEND GETAWAY

It's time to organise that Bull's Party, but you're not so keen on a weekend involving memory loss, rushed trips to the emergency ward and the hang over from hell? Active Escapes has got something equally entertaining - but a little less hazardous - for guys who want a solid weekend away.

Whether it's a bachelors or simply just time for a group of mates to catch up and have some fun, the KwaZulu-Natal Midlands is the perfect place to do some serious chilling out. With a package designed around leisure pursuits like fishing, golf and canopy tours; there is still plenty of time for lengthy braais with cold beers to complete the picture.

Itinerary @ a Glance

Arrival Evening	Most groups arrive on a Friday afternoon or evening, but we can arrange mid-week packages if required Arriving in the late afternoon, drop your bags at the farmhouse accommodation, stick the beers in the fridge and kick back with a frosty beverage. When the group is ready, head out to an English style pub to tuck into dinner – or bring your meat along and braai on the farm. Notties Weekender: The Midlands are famous for German food too, and no Notties trip is complete without tackling an Eisbien, washed down with micro-brewed beer.
Day One	Karkloof Weekender Activity One: Guided MTB Take to the trails with a local rider, and spend the morning cruising the unbelievable single track and forestry roads of the area. Bring your own bikes along for this activity, or enquire about bike hire well in advance of your trip LUNCH: Head to an open-air country style restaurant overlooking Howick falls, enjoy a substantial meal to fill the gap after your ride. Activity Two: Paintball With lunch down the hatch, grab your protective gear and go into combat mode. There aren't many guys who can resist shooting their mates in the back, particularly at close range, and an afternoon of paintball is the perfect way to really unwind. DINNER: Head to a local pub, or opt to braai at the farm.	Notties Weekender Activity One: Golf (18 Holes) Spend the morning at one of the Midlands premier golf resorts, enjoying the fresh air and unique vibe of country golfing. With golf carts and club rental, even the less seasoned golfer can fully enjoy this experience. LUNCH: Hopefully with a decent score card (and a birdie or two), take a short drive to one of the institutions of Midlands eating! Famed for a curry that people travel miles for, lunch will certainly set you up well for the afternoons activities. Activity Two: Fishing The Midlands are crisscrossed with fresh rivers and dotted with dams, perfect for an afternoon of casting lines. Supply your own rod, or make use of a rod rental option; and your group will have full access to one of the best fly fishing or bass fishing spots on the Midlands. Alternatively, if you would like a guided fishing experience, this can be arranged at an additional cost. DINNER: Head to a local pub, or opt to braai at the farm.
Day Two	Activity One: Canopy Tour Spend three hours in the Karkloof indigenous forests, traversing through the tree top canopy via ziplines. It's a unique experience to share with your buddies, and a light snack is included.	Activity Two: Mountain Biking Take to the trails with a local rider, and spend the morning cruising the unbelievable single track and forestry roads of the area. Bring your own bikes along for this activity, or enquire about bike hire well in advance

	Your group should be down on terra firma by lunch time, after which you can swing by Howick for lunch or start on the trip home.	of your trip After your bike ride, head back to the farm, grab a quick shower and start on the homeward journey.
